Kahnawake Gaming Commission and Santa Ysabel Interactive

On July 1, 2014, the Iipay Nation of Santa Ysabel, through the Tribe's online gaming enterprise, Santa Ysabel Interactive, will begin offering Class II interactive gaming from the Tribe's reservation located in San Diego County, California. After nearly two years of planning, Santa Ysabel Interactive and the Santa Ysabel Gaming Commission have designed and implemented a tribal Internet-based gaming structure which employs cutting edge technology to ensure a fair and exciting customer experience, and a regulatory framework which ensures that the operation is crime-free, that only eligible players participate in the gaming activity, and that maximum integrity in gaming and the processing of financial transactions is maintained at all times.

The Kahnawake Gaming Commission expresses its support for Santa Ysabel's commitment to tribal sovereignty and the right of Tribes to administer and regulate Class II gaming on tribal lands. The Kahnawake Gaming Commission has years of experience integrating best practices in interactive gaming and is a recognized world leader in ensuring excellence in interactive gaming regulation.

Upon reviewing Santa Ysabel Gaming Commission's interactive gaming regulations, the Kahnawake Gaming Commission has issued an Inter-Jurisdictional Authorization with Santa Ysabel Interactive to host part of Santa Ysabel Interactive's online gaming structure within the Mohawk Territory of Kahnawake. This Inter-Jurisdictional Authorization represents an expression of faith in Santa Ysabel's ability to effectively regulate its online gaming enterprise.

The Kahnawake Gaming Commission applauds the Iipay Nation of Santa Ysabel and Santa Ysabel Interactive in their effort to facilitate, offer, regulate and promote legal internet-based gaming. This expression of tribal sovereignty and the Tribe's determination to achieve self-sufficiency is a dream Tribes in North America have pursued since time immemorial. Santa Ysabel is committed to this goal and the Mohawk Territory of Kahnawake fully supports Santa Ysabel in this endeavor.

Sincerely,

KAHNAWAKE GAMING COMMISSION
